Ask Jeeves.

Dear Jeeves,

I recently met the love of my life here in Williams, Oregon. She lives out on Panther Gulch, but she is not a cougar, she is a really nice lady who has had some really bad luck with men. Her first husband was murdered outside a bar in Grants Pass, her second husband was murdered in prison, and her third husband disappeared and later was found dead, floating in the river.

She recently asked me to take out a life insurance policy; she told me that she has abandonment issues and she suffers from insecurity. She said she is worried about what would happen to her if anything were to happen to me. I don't believe in life insurance, and I have never had it but I don't want to disappoint my beloved or contribute to her anxiety issues. So should I do it?

Sincerely,

Clueless in Williams.
